JONAH IN THE WHALE'S BELLY.—Two hundred years ago Dr. Zephany Boyd wrote the following quaint description of Jonah in the whale's body. He was a minister of the parsonage of Glasgow, and Rector of its University: "What house is this, where's neither coal nor candle, Where nothing but guts of fishes hand? I and my table are both within, Where e'er I lay down, where I did never sleep."

The life of this on earth man never saw, A living man within a monster's maw, Buried under mountains which are high and steep.

Plunged under waters hundreds fathoms deep Not so with Nos., from his house I flee; For through a window by a light did see; He failed to leave the bucket waves—a wonder;

I and my boat still in the water under; He in his boat mid the waves also come,

He I start at, they are stranded, As is most sure, head and feet together,

Among such are seen a thousand another,

I find no way now for me thinking hence, But here I lie and die for mine obesities;

Eight priors were in No. 1's hulk 1' gether;

Comfortless they were each one to the other,

In all the earth like unto us none;

Far from all living I here lay alone.

GOOD REASONS FOR THE DOCTORS FAITH.

MOORE, G., March 12, 1820. We have for twelve months been prescribing Dr. Smith's "Spiriting Specific" in the treatment of syphilis and many other diseases for which it is recommended, and the results have been most satisfactory, not having been disappointed in a single instance. We think, for all diseases it is recommended to cure it stands without a peer, and that all the medical profession will sooner or later be forced to acknowledge it in the treatment of syphilis.
